
Professor Viktor Steiner

Academic Degrees: Master and Doctorate in Economics, University Linz, Austria
Habilitation in Economics and Econometrics, Johann-Wolfgang-Goethe-University Frankfurt/Main

Date of birth: 25 April, 1957

Nationality: Austrian

Professional Career:

since Oct. 2022: retired Professor of Freie Universität Berlin

May 2002 – Sept. 2022: Full Professor of Economics, Chair of Empirical Economics and Public Policy, School of Business & Economics, Freie Universität Berlin

May 2002 – Sept. 2010: Director Department of Public Economics, German Institute of Economic Research (DIW Berlin).

Oct. 2001 – April 2002: Professor of Economics, Center for Economic Studies (CES) at Ludwig-Maximilian University Munich;
Research Director „Social Policy and Labor Markets“, ifo Institute for Economic Research, Munich

June 1994 – Sept. 2001: Head of Department „Labor Markets, Human Resources and Social Policy“, Centre for European Economic Research (ZEW) Mannheim

Nov. 1991 – May 1994: Senior Researcher, Department „Labor Markets, Human Resources and Social Policy“, Centre for European Economic Research (ZEW) Mannheim

May 1987 – Okt. 1991: Lecturer, Economics Department, University Augsburg, Germany

May 1985 – April 1987: Research Fellow, Economics Department, University Linz, Austria

Oct. 1984 – April 1985: Research Fellow, Institute of Public Finance, Technical University Vienna

Oct. 1984 – July 1985: Scholar, Institute for Advanced Studies, Vienna

Academic Activities: Consultant for OECD, European Commission, World Bank;
Member of the Public Economics, Social Policy, and Population Economics sections of the Association of German-Speaking Economists (Verein fuer Socialpolitik)

Research Interests: Empirical Labour and Public Economics

Vienna, May 2023
